

COMMITTEE WORK DELAYS LABORS OF THE BIG CONVENTION TODAY; MANY RUMORS OF DEALS ARE HEARD

G. O. P. GATHERING MET AT NOON AND ADJOURNED UNTIL FOUR AND THEN AGAIN TOOK ADJOURNMENT UNTIL FRIDAY MORNING.

TAFT MEN IN CONTROL

Many State Delegations Refuse to Consider a Walk-out of the Convention and Insist That They Will Remain in Party.

Chicago, Ill., June 20.—(By Associated Press.) Exactly four minutes, 12:02 to 12:06, was the time taken up in the opening of the session of the third day of the republican national convention.

The intense crowd of nearly 14,000 people who had fought their way into the hall after an hour of waiting, had only got in before they began to scramble to get out again. The only business done was the prayer and the motion of James Watson of Indiana to be in recess until 4:00 p. m.

Delegates Released.

Conflicting reports came from the Roosevelt headquarters today that Colonel Roosevelt had released his delegates from all obligations to vote for him.

Watson's Statement.

James E. Watson of Indiana, floor leader of the Taft forces in the convention announced at two o'clock today that the credentials committee would not be ready at four o'clock and that the convention would be obliged to adjourn until tomorrow.

Relative to a report that Colonel Roosevelt would appear at the convention at four o'clock and attempt to address the delegates, Mr. Watson said that if the Colonel appeared he would be allowed to speak and the convention would adjourn immediately thereafter.

May Have To Adjourn.

Harry S. New expressed the belief this afternoon that the convention will be unable to finish work this week and will have to adjourn until after Sunday.

The doors were opened at two p. m., and the great hall began to fill rapidly. Hundreds had never left their seats at all but remained right through.

Issued Statement.

At 11:50 a. m. the Colonel issued a statement interpreted in various ways. It said: "The time has come when I feel that I must make certain statements not only to the honestly elected members of the republican national convention, but to the rank and file of the republican party and the honest people of the nation. I went into this fight for certain great principles. At this moment I can only save those principles by continuing to bear the personal responsibility which their advocacy has brought me."

Earlier Report.

Former Governor Regis Post of Porto Rico earlier had announced that Colonel Roosevelt had released his delegates but would remain in the race, and this statement was accepted by a number of Roosevelt leaders and the Colonel's own statement was so interpreted.

Then Denied.

O. K. Davis of the Roosevelt headquarters, however, said he was authorized by the Colonel to say that the statement of the release of delegates was absolutely false.

Officially Denied.

The statement that Col. Roosevelt had released his delegates is untrue said Senator Dixon. No such action has been taken. He could not release the delegates from the states in which direct primaries have been held if he wanted to.

Ex-Governor Post, who was responsible for the original statement, that the delegates had been released stated that he had been mistaken.

Cummins Looms Up.

Senator Kenyon this afternoon issued a statement stating that the situation today is greatly in favor of Senator Cummins, the pro-fraudulent leader of the United States senate. "He is the logical compromise candidate."

In Conference.

Further conferences of the Roosevelt forces were scheduled at 2:00 p. m. After being in conference with Colonel Roosevelt for thirty minutes, Governor Bradley, the Missouri governor and Roosevelt floor leader, said, "I will continue in the fight on the same lines as I have been following in the convention. Asked as to the report of a disagreement between himself and Colonel Roosevelt, he declared that there was no foundation for it."

Nothing Settled.

Senator Miles Polk of Washington said, as he left the conference room, "Nothing has been determined. The conference will recess until eight tonight and the representatives of the Roosevelt delegation will hold a meeting at two o'clock to decide on all questions as to what course shall be taken from then on."

Was anything regarding a compromise candidate done in the conference?" he was asked.

No Dark Horse.

"No, there was nothing done regarding a third candidate."

"Were any plans for a probable bolt taken up?"

"No, I am certain they will not call it a bolt, but a new movement in politics. We will not be a faction in the republican party. We will be a new party—a new force in American politics," replied the senator.

Can Be Free.

"Does Colonel Roosevelt's release of his delegates mean that they will go to any other candidate?" he was asked.

"No, not at all. It simply means that they will vote as they desire."

Taft Is Firm.

Bulletin, Washington, D. C., June 20.—A report from Chicago reached the White House today saying that President Taft, through Senator Crane, had requested the Taft delegates to the national republican convention, following Colonel Roosevelt's reported action regarding his delegates.

President Taft immediately denied the report, and at once talked with Senator Crane over the long distance telephone. White House officials said that Senator Crane had denied having made such a statement. It was said that the president had sufficient strength and was determined not to agree to any compromise.

The ostensible reason for the recess was the fact that the credentials committee had to work upon the contested delegates affecting the personnel of the convention and had only just begun its work.

Ponrose Confident.

"We will stay with President Taft," said Senator Ponrose when it was rumored that President Taft would withdraw and also release his delegates following the action of Col. Roosevelt, which was reported. "So far," the Senator continued, "he is the strongest man whose name has been suggested and there can be no other candidate until the roll call shall decide to the contrary."

Ohio To Stay.

"Ohio is not expected to join a bolt if one occurs," said Arthur F. Garfield, chairman of the state committee, who said that the delegates represent the people and they were committed to represent the state in the regular convention, not in any other body.

Will Roosevelt Speak?

When the convention convenes after its adjournment today a report was current that Colonel Roosevelt would come to the convention at four o'clock and would make an attempt to make a speech. Nobody really knew whether or not the rumor was true, but it added to the excitement. Hundreds of people settled down to wait in the hall until four o'clock this afternoon.

Police Active.

Although the real news of the situation was developing nearly a mile away at the hotels the tide in and around the coliseum was in the most tense condition of mind.

Chief of Police McWeney took personal charge of the police and they were so ordered, and so hardly did they enforce the rules that even legitimate ticket-holders, including newspaper men, were treated as if they were committing a crime to enter.

Difficult Work.

For a newspaper correspondent to try to get along the happenings of an impossible task. Correspondents were held back with the crowds the coliseum and at the hotels would at the door, while the ticking of the telegraph operators hour after hour, demanded their presence inside.

The various delegations began to arrive at about 1:30 a. m., and together with the crowd began forcing their way inside. A hand began playing popular airs at eleven o'clock and until the gavel fell.

Woman Sings.

"The music was varied today by a woman singer who was loudly applauded. Scarcely any notice was taken of Chairman Root, who stood for a moment at the front of the platform and was the target for a battery of photographs.

The gavel fell a few minutes after noon and Roy, Dean Sumner of St. Paul's and St. Peter's Cathedral gave the prayer.

Hadley Badgers.

"Hadley for President" badges made their appearance around the Missouri headquarters today. The source of these was not traceable but record breaking time was made in their manufacture shortly after the innovation given the Missouri executive in the convention yesterday.

There was considerable delay, uncertainty and confusion for the delegates as the third day of the republican national convention opened. The quick succession of events into last night and early this morning left a condition of absolute confusion. Even the wisest of party strategists did not this morning profess to see into the situation that would result after Chairman Root's gavel fell at noon for the resumption of the convention sessions.

With Roosevelt calling upon his followers to disregard the credentials committee and organize for themselves and with the Taft leaders conferring with the friends of possible third candidates, the air was electric in suggestion of heretofore unexpected complications.

Wild scenes and conferences, as intense as any "dollar wheel" panic that ever swept the pit of the Board of Trade were resumed where they had been broken off near daybreak when the delegates disputed with scrubwomen for possession of hotel lobby floors.

Crowding developments in the councils of leaders and behind conference room doors outside the convention hall only partly seen and understood by the body of the delegates, threw normally well balanced men into a state of near hysteria during which they swore, shouted and gesticulated until quelled by interference of policemen or detectives.

Pending the outcome of the meeting the members of the various committees selected by the convention proposed their meeting and much delay resulted in this connection. The committees planned to resume their work when developments showed they could expect to deal with.

Numerous reports regarding the probable trend of the convention sessions today were in circulation. These were of almost every possible nature. One, however, which was general and which was given credence by many of the delegation was that the convention would meet at noon and immediately adjourn until 4 o'clock, only to meet and adjourn again until 8 o'clock in the evening for the purpose of giving time for the entire situation revolving around the latter Roosevelt fight, to reshape itself.

The question of the course finally to be taken by Col. Roosevelt and his followers was heatedly debated at every meeting of a group of delegates or politicians. Some, professing to hold "inside" information of the plans of the Roosevelt forces, insisted that Col. Roosevelt would lead his followers to another hall or auditorium to organize a new, distinct convention and a new party. Others declared with equal vehemence that the Roosevelt contingent would remain in the Coliseum and attempt to hold a second or double convention on the same floor with the Taft people.

There was much speculation as to what would happen if the latter course was pursued. It was pointed out that Chairman Root, in such an event, might order the police and secret-service men to eject the Roosevelt people from the Coliseum for refusing to maintain order and follow the regulations of the convention. It was predicted that serious disorders would occur in case anything of this sort happened. A number of conferences of officials of the convention and party leaders were held today to prevent just such an outcome as this, if possible. Moderate members on both sides of the fight between Col. Roosevelt and the President joined in efforts to head off threatened physical trouble. At the same time the police arrangements were strengthened and a close watch was kept upon certain delegates who have shown signs of participating disorder.

Col. Roosevelt, it is said, would go to the Coliseum in person today and this information led to much speculation as to what effect his presence would have upon the delegates and crowds of spectators in the big convention hall. His visit undoubtedly will cause a sensation and probably will do more than that.

George L. Record and other Roosevelt leaders announced that it was not necessary for Col. Roosevelt to have a convention, as the former president's announcement that he was a candidate was sufficient. They argued that a bolt was not at all a necessary part of the Roosevelt program.

Some of the Roosevelt leaders said that their plan was to go to the convention hall today and demand a rehearing on the credentials proposition and then, unless the convention agrees to Col. Roosevelt's demands that the alleged fraudulently seated delegates be ousted a "walkout" of the Roosevelt delegates would result.

Gov. Herbert S. Hadley of Missouri is expected to continue as floor leader and will direct the activities of the Roosevelt men. His counsel and advice, it was expected, would prevail with many of the delegates and in case he should dissent from the opinion of other Roosevelt leaders it was possible that the fight would be continued without leaving the convention hall. In previous convention fights, particularly in a recent state convention in Missouri, Gov. Hadley showed plainly his preference for staying and fighting it out to the end with the idea of winning by strategy and bulldog tenacity.

In the Missouri convention Gov. Hadley was down the Taft forces to a point where, most unexpectedly, he checked them after an all day and all night struggle and secured instructions for Col. Roosevelt which at the opening of the convention had been considered hopeless by other leaders.

The great number of Roosevelt delegates seemed to think, however, that the declaration for independent action made by Col. Roosevelt early today precluded any further possibility.

COMMITTEE STARTED WORK ON PLATFORM

Resolutions Committee of Republican Convention Held Hearings With Regard to Proposed Planks Last Night.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, June 20.—With a "raft majority" of about 35 to 21, the committee on resolutions of the republican national convention went to work on the platform. Last evening was spent in hearings of various interests desiring that their ideas should be included in the official utterance of the party. Miss Jane Addams of Hull House, Chicago, headed a delegation in favor of woman suffrage; Irving Fisher spoke in favor of the public health bureau project and was opposed by United States Senator Works of California; the National Republican League urged the plan for pension and retirement of government employees.

Former Representative W. S. Hooper of New York presented a plank offering continued welcome to "the mentally and physically fit" but emphatically demanding the exclusion of the "crazies, the criminals and the insane." There were also representatives of the National Good Roads association, the Railway Business association and other organizations.

The committee had before it, of course the plans of the Taft, Roosevelt and La Follette groups.

A sub-committee with ex-Vice President Fairbanks as chairman was appointed to work out a draft for presentation at the convention.

ELECTIONS ARE HELD IN NEW BRUNSWICK

Fate of Conservative Government Hangs on Outcome—Opposition Candidates in Most Districts.

(Special to This Gazette.)

St. John, N. B., June 20.—The elections throughout New Brunswick are today expressing their political preference and on their verdict depends the fate of the Conservative Government, which, under the leadership of J. K. Plummer and previously under J. D. Hazen, whom Mr. Plummer succeeded when the former entered the Dominion cabinet, has been in office for four years. The campaign has been a rather spirited one, the Opposition putting up candidates in practically every constituency. In the campaign for a removal of its power the Government points to the success of its policies for the encouragement of industry and the development of the natural resources of the Province. The Opposition leaders have confined themselves principally to a criticism of the Government's handling of the finances. The general opinion is that while the Opposition may win one or two seats from the Government, they are likely to lose at least an equal number of seats held in the last legislative, so that the Government will come out of the contest as strong as ever.

CUBAN REBEL BAND DESTROYS PROPERTY

Mining Company's Buildings at La Maya According to Report to State Department.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, June 20.—Consul Hubbard at Santiago has reported to the state department that the property of the Ponape Mining company at La Maya, near Santiago, on the Cuban main and Western railway, has been burned by a Cuban rebel band. It thought here that the reported sudden departure of an unknown destination may have been connected with the plundering of the property.

It is understood here that Orestes Fernandez, speaker of the Cuban house of representatives, who bid farewell today to the president and Secretary Knox, returned to Havana by way of New York today perfectly satisfied with the attitude of the United States government toward Cuba.

WILL ROOSEVELT SUCCEED IN FORMING NEW PARTY, BY DELEGATES BOLTING?

CALLS HIS MEMBERS OF CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE OUT OF CONFERENCE AND THEN SENDS THEM BACK AGAIN.

TEDDY IN HARANGUE

Delivers Strong Talk to All Who Will Listen in the wee Small Hours of the Morning—Many Refuse to Bolt the Convention.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, Ill., June 20.—That the American people and republicans generally of the country already have nominated Colonel Roosevelt for president of the United States, and that Mr. Roosevelt and his followers will not receive the national convention as a regular convention unless the Hadley motion to substitute the 78 contested delegates was accepted, was the declaration of Colonel Roosevelt, Senator Dixon, at 1:00 p. m. today.

Chicago, Ill., June 20.—All is uncertainty today as to whether the Roosevelt leaders, led by the Colonel himself, will induce enough delegates to either bolt the convention and hold one of their own in the same hall or delay proceedings until after the first of the week. The action last night of the members of the credentials committee bolting that organization, listening to a long talk from Roosevelt, and then returning to the sessions today preaches an attempt to form a bolt which was unsuccessful.

After bolting once from the credentials committee under the orders of Col. Roosevelt, and being called back by Roosevelt managers to the committee room, all of the Roosevelt members of the credentials committee except R. R. McCormick of Chicago left again at 11:45 o'clock last night, declaring they were "out for good."

The cause of the bolt was the refusal of the committee to give a full hearing on all contested cases. After the Roosevelt men had left the committee took up the cases, but had not proceeded far when a motion to adjourn until nine o'clock this morning was proposed and carried.

Senator Dixon, the Roosevelt campaign manager, who had been hurriedly summoned after the first bolt, left with the Roosevelt men.

On the roll call adopting the rules, R. R. McCormick of Illinois; Clety St. Clair of Idaho; W. S. Landrum of North Dakota and John M. Early of Tennessee, voted "no."

The Roosevelt men shown by this roll call to be absent were: F. J. Heney, California; Ralph Harris, Kansas; Lex N. Mitchell, Pennsylvania; Jesse M. Libby, Maine; Edward G. Carrington, Jr., Maryland; Hugh T. Hallbert, Minnesota; H. E. Sackett, Nebraska; C. H. Cowles, North Carolina; J. J. Sullivan, Ohio; Dan L. Norton, Oklahoma; A. V. Swift, Oregon; S. N. Way, South Dakota.

James A. Tollerton of Missouri, who was one of those who made the first rush through the door during the first bolt, declared that he had never intended to leave the meeting, but had rushed out to bring in the newspaper men.

"Missouri is not bolting," he said; "but will vote for Roosevelt in the convention."

R. R. McCormick, when he came out of the room said he was "with the Roosevelt men in spirit, but perhaps not to the extent of leaving the hall."

"They were forced out of the committee," he said. "Rules were adopted that were outrageous."

After adjournment, Chairman Dixon declared the committee would take up the contested cases this morning and finish them as rapidly as possible in their regular order.

The delegates had been called to order in the Flamingo room of the Congress hotel by a Roosevelt delegate. An invitation was extended to Taft delegates who were present under false colors to leave the room.

"Let them stay!" shouted a delegate. "We have no star chamber sessions."

William Flinn of Pennsylvania mounted a table and addressed the delegates.

"The issue has been joined," he said. "I have just come from a two hours' conference of the Pennsylvania delegation and we voted unanimously to walk out of a convention controlled by the Taft forces through theft and fraud. Our decision carries with us the republican candidate for state treasurer and a candidate for congress in Pennsylvania. These gentlemen hold that their personal interests were of relative unimportance as compared with the principle at stake and the duty they owed the people.

"We have been patient, but the parting of the ways has come."

Edward C. Carrington of Maryland, a member of the credentials committee, here interrupted to describe the proceedings preceding the walkout.

"The Taft majority of the committee sought at the outset to apply the gag rule," he said, "and I refused to disavow the state of Maryland by sitting longer with the committee."

Delegate King of Nebraska made a speech in which he urged the bolters to return to the committee room and make a minority report to the convention this morning.

Then Col. Roosevelt appeared and immediately began to speak. "I am going to ask you to take a recess until I can get certain facts and lay them before you," he said. "I earnestly counsel you not to discuss what you intend to do until you have the facts before you."

"I can tell you the general outline of what I shall do. So far as I am concerned, I shall never recognize in a republican convention majority of which a large part is composed of fraudulently seated delegates from the states of which Gov. Hadley spoke today. That is not a convention of the republican party. A convention of the republican party is one elected by the people and not appointed by a moribund national committee."

"I am for a convention in which all the men elected by the states of Washington and Arizona and not the men appointed from Washington and Arizona by the defect bones of other states. I hold that this is no case of a factional fight. The time has come now when we must assert absolutely the right of the people to run the national convention, to have their own representatives put in the convention. I see that it was held today that of these contested delegates all were to vote on one another's cases on the ground of precedent. The argument in favor of that precedent is of the type of the argument made by a clever corporation lawyer when advising a corporation how to keep within a law and yield to what the law intended to yield to. This kind of law is intended to yield to what the law intends to yield to. This kind of law destroys any contract."

Later he gave the delegates the following advice:

"I am speaking to you," said Col. Roosevelt, "as a man whom I wish you have done the honor to wish to nominate as president. When I went into the race I made my appeal to the people. Most of the delegates were chosen at direct primaries by the people. I made my fight squarely. I said and some of you heard me, that if the people decided against me I would have nothing to say, but that if the people were for me and the politicians tried to cheat me out of the nomination I would have a great deal to say."

"I went before the people and I won. Now the national committee and a portion of the convention, which is made a majority only by the aid of delegates not elected but chosen by the national committee, are trying to cheat me out of the nomination. They can't do it. As far as I am concerned it makes no difference, but it is not me they are cheating. It is the people—the rank and file of the republican party."

"I did not want to give you any advice as I preferred to let you decide what to do, but I am going to give you my advice."

"Governor Deneen today introduced a very moderate resolution in dealing with the four flagrant states. It asked that the delegates from California, Washington, Texas and Arizona should not be permitted to vote and that the three states stolen boltly—Washington, Arizona and Texas—should not put their representatives on the credentials committee. That motion was voted down by substantially the same vote that elected Root over McGovern. In each case the majority was a majority only because the votes of the fraudulently seated delegates were counted."

"Mr. Root received seventy or eighty stolen votes," continued Mr. Roosevelt. "Mr. Deneen's resolution was beaten today by fraudulent votes which in that resolution were named, by the votes of Texas, Arizona, Washington and the two fraudulent votes from California. If those votes had been carried, the resolution would have been carried."

"To add insult to injury the committee on credentials organized by choosing as chairman Mr. Deneen."

the national committee, who had taken part in the very thing on which he had passed as a member of the national committee.

"As far as I am concerned I am through. I hope that tomorrow when you go back to the convention hall, you will at once introduce a resolution that not one of those fraudulently-seated delegates shall vote
on any question in the credential committee or in the convention. Don't let down again if they beat you by fraudulent votes. There is no use in voting to cut out the fraudulent votes and then being beaten by the fraudulent votes and say you are very sorry."

"I hope you will refuse no longer to recognize a majority thus composed as having any title in law or morals to be called a republican convention. We have, by fair means elected a clear majority of the delegates and I hope that you will not permit our opponents having failed
by fair means, to beat you by foul means and swindle the people out of the victory that they have won."

"If you are voted down I hope you, the real and lawful majority of the convention, will organize as such
and you will do it if you have the courage and loyalty to your convictions. Let's find out whether the republican party is still the party of the plain people; the people of the United States, or the party of the houses and the professional politicians acting in the interests of special privileges."

"If you want my advice, I would advise that you place no further trust. I would advise that you waste no further time. I would advise that you do not permit yourselves to be counted in any further way, shape of form by further association
with these men as long as they retain control of the republican convention by means of a majority composed of an essential part of fraudulently seated delegates who haven't the slightest right or title to represent the rank and file of the republican party and are without the slightest right or title to seats in the republican convention."

Governor Johnson reached the Florinthe room a few minutes after
Mr. Roosevelt had concluded his address. Many were leaving the room when Gov. Johnson entered. A score of men asked him and rushed him to a table. Immediately the room filled up again with delegates.

"Gentlemen," Gov. Johnson began,
"you have heard what we are going to do tomorrow. We are going to stop all-day-long with this robbery convention. We are going in there to fight and we are prepared for the birth of a new republican party
which will nominate for president, Theodore Roosevelt."

"And he will be elected!" was
shouted in a chorus from the delegates.
As Gov. Johnson proceeded, someone in the crowd shouted the name of "Hadley."

"Hadley! Hadley!" was the cry.
A mingled roar of cheers and his-
sion greeted this but quiet was soon restored and Gov. Johnson proceeded:

"This new party, which is inevitable, will be an honest party," he continued. "A party that will not maintainance thievery and robbery
such as we have experienced here."

The room was everywhere this morning that the Missouri delegation had decided to support Gov. Hadley for president and would vote for him on the first ballot. It was said this decision included both the Taft and Roosevelt members and that the delegation would cast thirty-five votes for Hadley, the governor himself, the thirty-sixth member, voting as he sees fit.

The rumor later was declared untrue. A caucus will be held on the floor of the convention today.

The news of Roosevelt's declaration provoked a scene of wild disorder in the corridors of the Congress hotel. A crowd of Taft delegates burst into a pandemonium of cheers, singing "Glory, Glory, Halle-lujah."

In every quarter the Taft men made no secret of their station. After one o'clock the racket was unabated.

Some of the leaders of the progressive states declared this morning they would not lend countenance to a
"bolt."

"North Dakota will remain register and will not bolt," said Senator Griffin. "I have seen several of the Wisconsin delegates and they assure me they will remain in the regular convention."

Senator Kenyon gave the same assurance as to the ten Cummins votes
in Iowa.

A man who has been close to the Roosevelt leaders asserted the belief that Col. Roosevelt could not control more than two hundred votes on a
bolt.

The New York delegation planned last night to come out today in a strong demonstration for Vice-President Sherman for re-nomination.

The boom has been kept in abeyance since the convention opened,
but with the developments of the night looking more favorable for the renomination of President Taft from their point of view, they decided that
today was the logical time to bring
forth their candidate for the "running mate" job.

So far Gov. Mead of Vermont has
been the only active candidate for
second vice-president on the Taft
ticket. The passive interest for Mr.
Sherman regarding the nomination,
is said to be accounted for by his
knowledge that the New York delegation had his candidacy in hand. This
is said to have been admitted when
his delegation refused to vote for the
national committee in the convention.

their point of view, they decided that
today was the logical time to bring
forth their candidate for the "running mate" job.

So far Gov. Mead of Vermont has
been the only active candidate for
second vice-president on the Taft
ticket. The passive interest for Mr.
Sherman regarding the nomination,
is said to be accounted for by his
knowledge that the New York delegation had his candidacy in hand. This
is said to have been admitted when
his delegation refused to vote for the
national committee in the convention.

night. "This talk about bolting ought to be set down on. Let the two factions fight it out in the convention.
I have been talking to other progressives on the advisability of organizing a new party." No, sir, I think the republican party is capable of mending the present situation.
I am bound to win out."

The Taft forces and they were prepared for an attempt of the Roosevelt people to hold a convention within the convention hall and had taken steps to prevent "any such disorder."

It was said that five hundred policemen and eight hundred assistant sergeant-at-arms would be stationed in the convention hall to prevent disorder and would do so at any cost.

It was said some of the Roosevelt leaders would plead with the convention tomorrow to instruct the credential committee to grant more time for a hearing of the contests.

Col. Roosevelt, it was said, would be present in the convention hall at that time and that while he would have no legal standing in the convention he might be swept into the fight
by his followers.

Col. Roosevelt counselled delay at a conference of his supporters. Just before midnight, he asked them to adjourn until later in the night when he would have more facts to lay before them.

The Taft forces were gleeful when they heard of the troubles of the Roosevelt members of the credential committee. The news struck Taft headquarters just when a half hundred delegates and a number of leaders were crowded in the rooms of Interior McKinley.

"Did they bolt? How many went out? Who were they?" And a storm of other questions broke forth. When the complete bolt of the Roosevelt people became known Director Mc-Kinley rubbed his hands. "That means they are beaten," he exclaimed. "There is no question about it; if they bolt that meeting it is a flat admission of defeat."

"That is my view of the situation,"
commented Senator Burton of Ohio.
"It is the beginning of the end."

Privately the Taft forces took the committee meant that the Roosevelt managers would order a bolt from

the convention if the credential committee report, sending the contested Taft delegates is adopted.

When the credential committee met this morning the Roosevelt members of the committee, acting under the suggestion of Colonel Roosevelt, returned to the meeting of that committee that they had left the committee for good was followed by an announcement of their intention to go back and participate in the hearings of the contested cases.

Under the revised rules the Roosevelt men claimed that they had won their chief points, namely: To secure the introduction of a new lot of evidence and to secure greater time for the debate.

More than an hour was occupied by the Roosevelt attorneys in presenting the Roosevelt side of the first place called, but of the Ninth Alabama district.

Members of the committee expressed doubt as to the possibility of the conclusion of the seventy-two contest hearings in time to make a report to the national convention this afternoon.

Roosevelt members of the committee agreed in the conference at noon
to push only the Alabama, California, Texas and Washington contested cases—thirty-eight cases in all. These were declared to be the most important.

The total number of contested
delegates involved in the Hadley resolution included also twenty-two delegates from Arkansas, Indiana, Kentucky and Tennessee.

The Roosevelt delegation from the Eighth Alabama
district was defeated thirty-four to fourteen.

St. Clair of Idaho, known as a Roosevelt man and S. H. Cady of Wisconsin voted against the Roosevelt delegates.

Hopes No Bolt.
Washington, June 20.—Senator Cummins declared today that he hoped there would be no bolt at the convention. He was in constant communication by telephone with his friends who are urging his candidacy
as a compromise candidate. "I do not think the Iowa delegation will bolt," he said.

WINNINGER BROTHERS ENGAGEMENT OPENED

Excellent Cast Presents Pleading Comedy Drama to Large Audience at Myers Theater.

Opening a five-night engagement at the Myers Theater, the Winninger brothers company secured a decided success in the comedy drama, "The Poor Millionaire," before a large audience last evening. The company which has just finished a long run in a Milwaukee theatre is remarkably well balanced and each member of the cast showed true appreciation of the dramatic art.

Frank Winninger, Jamesville's favorite German comedy actor, was at home in his part as Hermann Gehbart,
the rich but uneducated father of a son
whose marriage in high society circles
had not been any too successful, especially from the standpoint of the plotting mother-in-law, William A.
Morse as Hermann's son gave a pleasing interpretation of his part; as did Adolph Winninger as Harry Gilman, friend and brother-in-law of Joe Geh-bart. Mary Avery as the plotting mother and E. S. Ross, as the scheming lawyer, played their roles with ease
and in realistic manner, while Evelyn De Pollart was charming as the discontented and then penniless wife of Joe Gehbart. Adela Hurley as Lillian Milburn, Harry Gilman's sweetheart, was also a delightful character.

The play this evening will be Mark E. Swann's "A Man of Mystery," and promises to be one of the treats of the engagement. The production Friday night will be "A Dutch Blockhead."

MULES AND WAGONS BEAT AUTO TRUCKS

Captain Fayville Declares Time Has
Not Come to Supersede Mule-Troops Camped at Middleton.
(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Madison, June 20.—The provoking incident of the U. S. army under command of Colonel R. N. Getty is encamped at Middleton eight miles from here and will not reach Madison until tomorrow morning. They will stay at Camp Randall until Monday.

The army mule has apparently won his fight for existence over the auto truck as a substitute for the mule.
The experiment has been exposed enough to justify the following statement from Capt. M. E. Faville.
"The auto demonstration has been such as to warrant the conclusion that it is unwise and unsafe to supersede the mule and army wagons with the troops by any other means of locomotion."

Colonel Getty asserted that mule was superior although admitting that the auto truck will prove of value in supplementing the regular mode of convoys.

Paris, June 20.—The Chinese loan
of three hundred million dollars was completed this afternoon by the delegates of the group of international bankers representing the six powers,
the United States, Great Britain, Germany, France, Russia and Japan.

Chose Strange End: An intoxicated
man was found asleep this morning, wedged between two timbers on the river bank below the Blodgett mill.
The patrol wagon brought him to the police station, where he was dismissed on his promise to go home and sleep where he belonged.

Only Made It Worse.
James Payn tells of a whilst player being told by an opponent that he could always tell by his face when he had a good hand. This he resented exceedingly, and applied to his partner for a refutation of it; but he was still more irritated by his form of corroboration, "that he had never noticed any expression in his countenance whatever."

then burned.

Parties and their property were respected by the troops and they found refuge at the British consulate. All is quiet in the city today but a strong

MAJORITY REPORTED IN PARKER'S FAVOR

Stated Before Meeting of Arrangements Committee That Parker
Had Votes for Temporary Chairmanship.
(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Baltimore, Md., June 20.—Members of the committee on arrangements
were here with the exception of Mr.
Hall of Nebraska. Noon was the hour fixed for the meeting. It was authoritatively stated at 10:00 a. m.
that the majority of the committee
were in favor of naming Judge Parker as temporary chairman of the convention and that the committee would go through that plan.

Several of the committee men said they thought it would be taken to the convention floor. It was formally proposed as a possible solution of the question that Colonel Bryan be named for temporary chairman.

W. F. McCombs, leader of the Wilson forces, said the Wilson people had no candidate for temporary chairman and would abide with the committee's selection.

It was understood here that the Clark advocates would meet in Washington tomorrow.

Judge Parker was elected temporary chairman of the democratic convention.

Grey Woodson of Kentucky was unanimously chosen as temporary secretary and Colonel John I. Martin of St. Louis temporary sergeant-at-arms.

The committee will be in session
until 3:30 p. m.

Missed Heaven for a Penny.
One of the most curious stories of a man down on his luck is Clepham Palmer's tale of the poor fellow who missed heaven for want of a penny.
Wary of the struggle for life, he went to bed and turned on the gas-lamp in a well closed room. Just as his feet were on the threshold of the mansion above the gas ran out, and there was not a penny in the house to put in the slot.—London Chronicle.

Ballooning and the Vision.
Ballooning has a curious effect on the vision. The pressure on the visual organs decreases and the sense of sight becomes so keen that at an altitude of 6,000 feet a bottle dropped to a body of water below may be observed in detail as it disappears beneath the surface.

William Flynn.
Ex-Senator William Flynn, of Pittsburg, is one of the most feared of the Roosevelt men at Chicago by the Taft forces. It was his general-ship that won for Roosevelt a enormous victory in the Pennsylvania primaries. He will probably supplant Pennock as leader of the Republican party in Pennsylvania.

Fight fans who had expected to witness the Jack Johnson-Jim Flynn battle in the moving picture show had better back up and start for Las Vegas. They have seen the last fight picture, they will be likely to see in the nickelodeons. Congress has risen wrathfully and declared that there shall be no more interstate commerce in prize fight films. This knockout blow to fight pictures will bring deep sorrow to the hearts of three classes of people; first, to the fighters themselves, who have made thousands of dollars out of the moving picture privileges, secondly, to the owners of picture shows, who have raked in bushels of shekels by reason of the fight pictures; thirdly, to fight fans who have been in the habit of witnessing every important battle in the picture shows.

"Connie Mack acts largely on his luncheon," declares Mr. Thomas, main catcher, of the Philadelphia Athletics. Some of the moves he makes seem to be the result of inspiration."

CLOSELY CONTESTED BOUTS LAST NIGHT

Freddy Andrews Has Shade Advantage Over Kid Troubles—De Munn Slightly Outclassed in Eight-Round Go.

Four fast boxing contests were staged at the auditorium under the auspices of the Janesville Athletic club last evening. With possibly the exception of the go between Charles Searling of Milwaukee and Jack Hendricks of Chicago, all of the contests were evenly matched and clever work. In the final bout, Freddy Andrews, Milwaukee, and Kid Troubles, Chicago, boxed the best match of the evening. The advantage was slightly on the side of the Milwaukee lad whose defense was a puzzle to the Chicago boy and whose punches including stiff left jabs to the neck kept Troubles worried. Troubles showed good form in the last part of the contest and his endurance and ability to stand the punishment meted out by his opponent counted much in his favor. His defense was weak at times, but he landed some telling blows and had his opponent on the defense when he tried his rushing tactics in the last rounds. Kid Lepper, Milwaukee, proved to be a clever lad and the shade of the advantage went to him in his bout with Kid De Munn of Belvidere. The Milwaukee boy has the science on his side and time and again landed his well directed blows. His punch seemed to lack force, however, and combined with De Munn's ability to stand punishment, his work failed to show the effect one would expect. The bout was an open one with plenty of good mixing and was a pretty one for the fans to watch. It went for eight rounds. Charles Searling of Milwaukee, had an easy time with his Chicago opponent, Jack Hendricks, whose second throw in the sponge when he went down for the count. In the fourth round, Hendricks was down for the count of nine in the third round and it was evident then that he could not last against the terrific attack of his opponent, who landed telling blows about the head and face. Kid Sharkey of this city had the better of his man, Kid Cross of Beloit, in the six-round preliminary. Both boys mixed it well but Sharkey was continually forced to take the offensive and repeatedly broke down his opponent's guard. All the bouts proved most satisfactory and the work of Jack Dougherty of Madison as referee was all that could be desired. The attendance was somewhat light owing to other attractions attending the state convention of Eagles.

COLLEGE NINE WON FROM THE ALUMNI

Fast Milton College Team Victors in Last Game of the Season Tuesday With Graduates.
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Milton, Wis., June 19.—The fast Milton College baseball nine closed one of the most successful seasons in the history of the institution Tuesday when they easily defeated the graduates in the annual Alumni-College game, by a score of 12-1. The oldtimers started off in form, but after scoring first were bewildered by the fast counter charge of the Collegians who pounded the sphere for four runs the first inning. The Alumni at times showed flashes of their former ability as stars of the diamond, pulling off a double steal and doing some fast work on bases, but they could not hit the masterly pitching of Maxon and Crandall who have been the terror of the batsmen of far better teams all the season. The College used Maxon, Crandall and Ernest in the box and the older players gleamed only one hit off from them. Crandall holding them scoreless during his period in the box. Ray, Milwaukee, the oldest Alumni, hit the ball four times in four times at bat; the only real glory claimed by the oldtimers was that they made as many runs in this game as Ripon Northwestern and Plattville combined in the last three preceding games with Milton. Scores by innings:
Milton College 4 2 1 0 1 0 3 1 12
Alumni Team 1 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 1
Summary:
Two base hits—Burdick, Thorngate, Whitford; three batters—Ernest, G. Crandall; bases on balls off Maxon 2, off Whitford 2, off place 5; struck out by Maxon 5, by Crandall 4, by Ernest 3, by Whitford 2, by Place 5. In seven innings, umpire—C. Dunn of Milton College. Time 1 hr. 40 mins.

FORTY BOTTLES OF BEER INTOXICATION LIMIT?

Louisville, Ky., June 20.—"It takes more than forty bottles of common beer to make a man drunk," according to witnesses testifying before Federal Inspector Keene during the case charged against Superintendent of Mills Lewis O'Donnell at the custom house here. Alvin Volter, an employee of the railway mail service, said he had seen O'Donnell drink two bottles of common beer, but that he was not intoxicated. Inspector Keene then asked how many bottles it would require to become intoxicated, and was assured that O'Donnell was thirty bottles within the limit.

They gave me almost instant relief when my kidneys were sluggish and inactive. I cheerfully recommend them to all sufferers from kidney troubles." Foley Kidney Pills are as carefully made and as scientifically compounded as any medicine your home doctor can give you. They act directly on the kidneys and bladder. Budget Drug Co.

THE BAR NEEDS MEN OF HIGHER IDEALS

Chief Justice Winslow in Address to Wisconsin Law Graduates Attacks Chicanery in Legal Profession.

Madison, Wis., June 20.—The bar already has more than enough members who practice law simply as a means of gaining a livelihood and who regard sharp practice and chicanery as legitimate means of warfare. The bar, however, needs new members imbued with high ideals, who realize that they belong to one of the noblest of professions and who will make it their life-work to elevate its standards and hasten the day when the attainment of justice shall be the paramount aim of both bench and bar.
In these words, Chief Justice Winslow of the Wisconsin court welcomed the members of the 1912 law class of the University of Wisconsin to the ranks yesterday afternoon, when the class was admitted to practice. Judge Winslow said that the office is "like the vow of the religious recluse and should be considered as equally solemn and binding."
"It contains an epitome of your duties as an attorney," he said, "and I beg you to consider every sentence as I read it, and unless you are prepared to assent to it honestly and without reserve it would be better for you to withdraw now."
The class numbered twenty-seven young men.

At General Huerta's Headquarters, Santa Rosalia, Mex., June 20.—The order to move north of the Mexican stronghold at Bachamba was given today by General Huerta, the federal commander. The vanguard of 1,800 cavalry under General Bahago is expected to be in frequent skirmishes with the enemy. The entire division controlled by General Huerta will probably be encamped at La Cruz or Cancho at nightfall.
The actual fighting results show a loss of seven dead, sixteen wounded, and sixty horses killed. WOULD MAKE TEMPORARY OFFICERS PERMANENT ONES

Chicago, Ill., June 20.—The committee on permanent organization this morning voted 22 to 7 to make the temporary organization permanent. This would continue from now on the officers and continue all temporary officers throughout the convention.
The motion to make the temporary organization permanent was made by Gov. Pennell of Delaware, whereupon Fred C. Conroy of Illinois moved a substitute making that the committee do defer action until the reports of the committee on credentials had reported its action to the convention. The debate was wild and the Conroy substitution was lost, 7 to 22.

BRYAN REFUSES TO MAKE ANY STATEMENT AT ALL

Chicago, June 20.—William Jennings Bryan who is in Chicago reporting the republican national convention, today refused to commit himself on the report that he was opposed to Alton B. Parker as temporary chairman of the convention at Baltimore. "On a convention at a time, please," he said. "I am having all I can do looking after the republican convention. I do not know what I shall do if they have two of them here. Our convention comes next. There will be plenty of time to discuss it when this convention adjourns; that is all."

SIDEWALK KETCHES.

THE CANDIDATE.
(By Howard L. Hann.)

THE candidate is a lowly and ingenuit individual who earns a living by running for some office and putting the odds under the present incumbent. He is always fired with zeal during a primary election and is frequently fired with a loud report at a few months later. As soon as a man becomes a candidate for anything, from justice of the peace up, the neighbors pull out a few tablets of memory and begin to remind each other of the time when he circulated a petition and chewed the desecrated globe. Let a man blow up for congress and he will be passed from one of the streets to another.

He is outwaded show bills and the still, small voice of the chattered mortgage. The candidate is the original and unspiced optimist. He is never disturbed by anything except the election returns, and flutters about among an unappreciable citizenship accompanied by pale cigars and the clarion voice of reform. Some candidates never know when they have had enough and come up every two years with a new half-toned cut and a platform which is guaranteed to cure all the ills of the body politic. Others run once around the track without getting back their entrance fee, and then retire hastily to some secluded spot where they can commune with their expense account and swear off in language which would choke a fire extinguisher. After a defeated candidate picks himself out from under a pile of scratched ballots and returns home so that the neighbors may view the remains, he becomes a desperate character and bolts the ticket with bloodshot eyes. Many a man has deserted a 100-acre farm to become a candidate for some county office that destroyed his appetite for work to such an extent that whittling a toothpick left him completely fagged. The father who persuades his son to run for an elective office ought to be prepared to pension him when the voters have got through expressing their opinion of his qualifications.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

PETER PARLEY AND HIS BOOKS.

By A. W. MACY.
Samuel Griswold Goodrich was probably the most prolific author America has produced. He was the author, editor or compiler of 170 books. Of these, 116 were published under his NOM DE PLUME of Peter Parley, which came to be a very familiar name in almost every household in America. Most of his books were intended for children and young people; yet they were almost as extensively read by adults. It is estimated that more than 7,000,000 copies were sold. On account of the popularity of his books, many were published under the name of Peter Parley which he did not write. He had almost as much trouble repudiating spurious books as he did claiming credit for his own. He was born in 1793 and died in 1860.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jackson entertained Mesdames John Martin, James McCulpin, Julia McCulpin and Miss Lillian Martin, and Mr. MacNeill of Beloit, Tuesday.

McCarthy, Ida and Hilda Olson, Mabel Simpson and Jessie Walters, town of Beloit, and Miss Gertrude Lee of Hanover. After games and other amusements had been indulged in, an elaborate supper was served, after which the young people left for their several homes, wishing their hosts many happy returns of the day.

BRUNKHORST'S BAND WAS AWARDED PRIZE

Milwaukee Musicians Take First Place in Contest Against Leavers Band of Beloit.

Honors in the band contest went to Brunkhorst's band of Milwaukee over Leaver's band of Beloit by a close margin last evening. Only the two bands were entered in the contest on reason for which was that the band committee neglected to supply the band stand in the court house park with lights. As a result the musicians were forced to take their position around the light in front of the Kent building on the corner of Main and Court streets.

The Milwaukee band of thirty pieces led by P. W. Brunkhorst with a melody of popular pieces and "Bagline Violin" as the second selection played with wonderful harmony. The Beloit band of twenty pieces was ably directed by C. H. Leaver and played a melody of southern airs and the waltz, "Sweet Dreams" with remarkable expression and musical appreciation.

The prizes of $50 and $25 were awarded by Roy C. Clark, Irl R. Davis and Ernest Muenchow, members of the Flower City band. There was a large crowd gathered on the street and in the park to hear the contest and both aggregations were heartily applauded. It was a matter of regret that more bands were not entered.

Thousands of housewives are learning that not only economy of purse but better health follows the change to Postum.

Among the many common ailments caused by thoughtless habits of living are headache, listlessness, indigestion, irritability, sleeplessness, and other disagreeable symptoms of disturbed nerves, digestion and circulation, often due to tea and coffee drinking.

If interested in health and the good things that naturally go with it, why not try a package of Postum from your grocer.

For seventeen years Postum has proven a good friend to former tea and coffee drinkers who felt something was wrong, but didn't know the cause.

If this fits you—
Think it over.

"There's a Reason"

Read letter to right.

For quick, convenient serving, try
INSTANT POSTUM

This is regular Postum in concentrated form—nothing added.

Instant Postum requires no boiling. Stir a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water; add cream and sugar to taste and instantly you have a rich food drink that is palatable and healthful.

REGULAR POSTUM—15c size makes 25 cups; 25c size
makes 50 cups.

INSTANT POSTUM—30c tin
makes 45 to 50 cups; 50c tin
makes 90 to 100 cups.

AN OLD TIMER
Has Had Experience.

A woman who has used Postum since it came upon the market knows from experience the wisdom of using Postum in place of tea or coffee if one values health and a clear brain.

"At the time Postum was first put on the market I was suffering from nervous dyspepsia, and my physician has repeatedly told me not to use tea or coffee. Finally I decided to take his advice and try Postum. I got a package and had it carefully prepared, finding it delicious to the taste. So I continued its use and very soon its beneficial effects convinced me of its value, for I got well of my nervousness and dyspepsia.

"My husband had been drinking coffee all his life until it had affected his nerves terribly, and I persuaded him to shift to Postum. It was easy to get him to make the change, for Postum is so delicious. It certainly worked wonders for him.

"We soon learned that Postum does not excite or depress and does not stimulate, but steadily and honestly strengthens the nerves and the stomach.

"To make a long story short, our entire family continued to use Postum with satisfying results as shown in our line condition of health."

Better health follows the use of Postum in place of tea and coffee, sometimes in a very marked manner. "There's a Reason."

Illusive.
There is a motion without progress
In time as well as in space; where a thing often remains stationary, which appears to us to recede, while we are leaving it behind. — Julius Charles Hare.

Protection for Timber.
Timber is protected from dry rot
and insect attacks by boiling it and allowing it to cool in and absorb a saccharine solution by a new process that comes from Australia.

Ethletic Side of Cookery.
The object of cooking is not merely hygienic but ethletic also, for cooking improves the appearance of the food, develops new flavors, and makes it more attractive. A mental process begins at the sight of pleasing food which reacts on the gastric organs in such a way as to promote digestion.—

About 4,500 species of wild bees are known, and of wasps, 1,100.

BY WALT MASON

I know a crippled woman who lives through years in pain with patience superhuman—for never does she complain. An endless torture rages throughout her stricken frame;
an hour would seem like ages if I endured the same. Sometimes I call upon her to ask her how she stacks;
it is her point of
honor to utter no
alikes; she laments
out no alikes, but says she's feeling gay, and every hour that passes brings some new joy her way. "The old seven, old chap," she says,
"as you can see; my heart is always happy, the Lord's so good to me!"
This chorley palin-racked Auntie, and says it with a smile; and when I leave her shanty I kick myself a while. For I am strong and scarpy; I'm round in wind and limb; and yet I'm seldom happy; I will a graveyard hymn; when for I meet recesses my howls are agonized; I any, with bitter curses, the gods are subsidized. When life seems like December, a thing of gloom and care,
I wish I could remember old Auntie
in her chair, forget my whinings hateful, and that wretched-in sen, who says that she is grateful, "the Lord's so good to me!"

Today's Riddle

WHAT IS THAT WHICH, SUPPOSING
ITS GREATEST BREADTH TO BE FOUR INCHES, LENGTH NINE
INCHES, AND DEPTH
THREE INCHES,
CONTAINS A
SOLID FOOT?
(Answer)

THE REASON

"It seems to me that Scribner's writing has deteriorated since he became famous."
"Oh! It isn't that—but since becoming famous he has been able to sell
all the poor stuff he ever wrote."

Reindeer and Yak for Alaska.
The reindeer used to be known chiefly in the Christmas picture book, while the South American yak is still known chiefly through his occasional visits with the circus. The scarcity of game, and therefore food for flesh-eating dogs, is reviving a demand in Alaska for herb-eating beasts of burden. Reindeer are being shipped west from Labrador, and it is hoped also to get some yak from the Andes to help out.

Her Reply.
Little Mary, though very good-natured, does not like to be treated disrespectfully, and when the other morning, Cousin Robert said: "Will you bring me my hat, mademoiselle?"
she angrily answered: "I won't do it, Mr. Muzzle!"

PUBLIC IS ASKED TO AID IN THE MATTER

Persons Answering Fraudulent Advertisements Asked to Notify Gazette.
The Gazette is desirous of keeping out of its columns fraudulent advertising and asks
the assistance of its patrons to that end.
There are any number of concerns in the country who make a living through a nicely worded advertisement, offering golden opportunities, and these unscrupulous people find fertile ground for work among the innocent.
Many orders are received in the Gazette mail for advertising which are returned as objectionable and where there is a question as to the qualifications
the advertisement is omitted.
All newspapers have this experience.
But even with the utmost care there will be an occasional advertisement which will pass the scrutiny of the business department of the paper
and find its way into the columns.
The Gazette will deem it a favor if you will report to the office any trouble which may have been experienced through the answering of such an advertisement.
